

INDUSTRY CONTRIBUTIONS

IEEE CBMS conference is the premier international conference for computer-based medical systems. A fundamental goal of CBMS is to foster cooperation between academics and industrial companies.

THREE OPTIONS ARE AVAILABLE:

1) By presenting a high-quality industry contribution in the form of a regular paper or a poster which will be reviewed by an international program committee.

Industry proposals are intended to describe innovative processes, procedures, products, or projects related to the CBMS themes, by clearly stating aims, procedures, and results. To this end, CBMS has organized a specific Projects and Industry Track (here).

Necessary steps:

- Prepare and submit the proposal according to the template and instructions provided here.
- Important dates are reported below.
- Pay the conference fee.
- Prepare an oral presentation or a poster, to be exhibited during the conference, according to the guidelines furnished in the acceptance email.

2) By presenting a sponsorship proposal according to the guidelines reported here.

Necessary steps:

- Send an email to the local general Chair (giuseppe.placidi@univaq.it) with the intention to participate in one of the ways described here
- Pay the sponsorship fee according to the guidelines furnished in the acceptance email
- Prepare the promotional material to be presented during the conference
- The deadline is March 30, 2023

3) Both the above options (1) and 2).
